BIG FARE.Sch. Angielena Gets 250 Barrel Haul off Marshfield.*About 40 Sall of Seiners Now in Boston Bay.

The outlook for mackerel in Boston at present is quite promising. About 40 sail of seiners are now operating off Marshfield, and four or five of them made small hauls and one got a big school just at sundown yesterday afternoon. Sch. Angielena, Capt. Samuel T. Joseph, was the lucky craft and she is at Boston this morning with a fair estimated at 40,000 fish in count. Schs. Geneva Mertis and Nettie Franklin are also there with small trips.

The fish brought eight cents apiece. This means a big stock for the Angielena, whose crew have shared $402 each previous to this dandy trip.

Advices from Dingle, Wednesday, Sept. 23, say that the Irish fall mackerel fishery had opened with poor fishing.

The total mackerel catch of Norway to September 9 was about 3855 barrels, of these 1200 barrels being prepared for the American money.

The fare of sch. Sarah E. Lee sold to John Pew & Son at $13.25 per barrel.

The fare of sch. Oliver Wendell Holmes sold to Wm. H. Jordan.

Sch. Corsair was at Portland this forenoon.

Big Stock.

Sch. Independence, Capt. Joseph V. Cusick, weighed off 314,000 pounds of salt cod as the result of her maiden bank trip, stocking $9353.45. The average share was $194.51, the high line share being $241.53. This is one of the best stocks and shares of the season.

Good Trip.

Sch. Annie Greenlow, Capt. James McHenry, arrived from Grand Bank Sunday after a 24-days trip with a fine fare of 28,000 lbs. of halibut and 6000 lbs. of cod.
